

YOUNG NORDIC PRODUCERS CLUB IN CANNES, 2022

We are convinced that May 2022 will be the year we meet again for a physical edition of the Cannes Film Festival. – And we are excited.

For the 11th time we proudly present YOUNG NORDIC PRODUCERS CLUB in Cannes.

Extend your network, learn much more about co-production and sharpen your tools.

For four days, we will look in to as many aspects of co-production as possible. We have invited several experienced film professionals in producing, distribution, sales, International strategy, marketing, and festivals to share their experience with us.

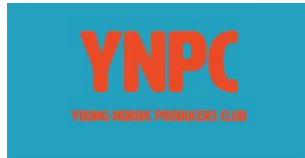

We also present a couple of cases in Co-production and International film sales.

The program also focusses on sharpening and increasing your network. We will set up a network lunch and network, drinks & mingle with representatives from Nordic and European film institutes, Nordic Film and TV Fund, Nordic Creative Europe Desks, film funds, international production companies etc.

So, do you work as a “young” producer in an established company, or have you established your own production company recently? And are you in Cannes during the Film Festival 2022?

Then we would like to invite you to take part in “YOUNG” NORDIC PRODUCERS CLUB, 2021.

The program take place from Thursday May 19 (approx. 4pm) – Sunday May 22nd (approx. 2.30)

We are Noemi Ferrer, Executive Director, DR Sales and Tina í Dali Wagner, CEO in FILMGREB and Head of The Faroese Film Institute. Our intention is to create a program to strengthen the Nordic Producer's network and to support international co-production.

We have room for approx. 24 producers from the Nordic countries.

The time schedule will look roughly like:

Thursday May 19 from 16.00 – 20.30

Friday May 20 from 10.00 -16.30

Saturday May 21 from 10.00 – 20.00

Sunday May 22 from 10.00 – 14.30

This invitation is sent to producers in Norway, Sweden, Finland, Iceland and Denmark.

The participants fee is 175 € and the deadline for sending your application is March 23rd, 2022.
